

Cassville School District

Friends of Education

2015-2016

This page is devoted to individuals, organizations, and businesses that devote their time and/or money to furthering the education of Cassville's students. Thank you for all you do for students in the Cassville School District!

Susan Kremer was recognized during the Cassville School District's September Board meeting for being a Comet Character Supporter of Education. Mrs. Kremer has substituted, assisted the Title 1 program, volunteered in school organizations, and has come back multiple times to help our students regarding character, teamwork, mentoring, and service to our community since retiring. Mrs. Kremer has dedicated so much of her time for our community and to our school. The district staff and school board wanted to say thank you for all that she has done and continues to do for us!

Sports Boosters were recognized during the Cassville School District's October Board meeting for being a Comet Character Supporter of Education. They have given financial support and also encouragement to both students and the school district. Pictured is Todd Bausch receiving a certificate from Chad Infield, Dean of Students.

Connie Kirschbaum was recognized during the Cassville School District's November Board meeting for being a Comet Character Supporter of Education. Connie Kirschbaum worked for many years as a secretary for the Cassville School District. Since retiring, she continues to come into the elementary school to volunteer her time and help our students and staff. Thank you to Connie for her dedication to our schools.

Dion & Lori Nemitz were recognized during the Cassville School District's December Board meeting for being a Comet Character Supporter of Education. Dion & Lori Nemitz were recognized for helping out Mike Gotzinger, a janitorial staff member, while he was out for surgery. They took care of all the set up and take down after all events in the gym. Thank you to Dion & Lori Nemitz for their dedication to our schools.

Chief Brent McDonald was recognized during the Cassville School District's February Board meeting for being a Comet Character Supporter of Education. Chief McDonald has been a great resource for our staff, students, and families here in Cassville. Chief McDonald helps our community work together to support our youth and in a manner that teaches mutual respect for the law and for each other. Chief McDonald cares about our students, the school and community's image, and the future success of the district. Thank you Chief McDonald for your dedication and support!
